

El-Qist : Journal of Islamic Economics and Business (JIEB)

Author Guidelines

Articles written for the el-Qist Journal include scientific papers on Indonesian Islamic law and Jurisprudence from various perspectives, covering both literary and fieldwork studies. The journal puts emphasis on aspects related to Islamic Jurisprudence studies in an Indonesian context, the journal also explores themes such as Islamic philanthropy, socio-economic practices, and their influence on local and global economies.

This journal is intended to communicate the original researches and current issues on the subject. This journal warmly welcomes any contributions from scholars of the related disciplines. The following are the provisions on article writing in el-Qist Journal:

1. Script must be scientific in forms of conceptual ideas or research results;
2. Script must be original and have never been published in any media;
3. Script must be written in Indonesian or English, on A4 paper size, 1.15 space, about 14-20 pages or more than 5000 words;
4. The script is directly sent via OJS el-Qist Journal;
5. The author must complete the data fields available in OJS account;
6. It is preferable to use the available template \(download\);
7. The authors must be willing to follow the editing process set by the Editor;
8. The author must write the reference based on The Chicago Manual of Style 17th Edition and must use the Zotero or Mendeley application;
9. Author is advised to cite articles that have been published by el-Qist Journal.

The paper submitted should have never been published or being submitted for publication anywhere else and should be written in English or Indonesia. We provide a translator with a special translation fee for an accepted manuscript written in Bahasa Indonesia.

Additional Note:

- The article must fit the journal's scope. If it deviates, the editor may reject it without providing detailed reasons.
- Authors should ensure their work aligns with the journal's focus to avoid immediate rejection.

El-Qist : Journal of Islamic Economics and Business (JIEB)

Islamic Economic Department, Faculty of Islamic Economics and Business, Sunan Ampel State Islamic University, Surabaya Indonesia

St. Ahmad Yani 117 Surabaya, East Java 60237, Indonesia.

Email: el-qist@uinsa.ac.id